

Shirebiz Bulletin 13th July 2020

ANSTO Putting Science to work July 2020

An international research team lead by Monash University and ANSTO has created an ultrathin porous membrane to separate potential harmful ions such as Lead and Mercury from water. It potentially has wide applications globally. See

Australian Government support for business July 2020

Features updates on JobKeeper, new ASIC publications, ATO's priority to help those who have been financially affected by COVID 19 and Australian Government's contribution to the International Freight Assist Mechanism [IFAM] For details see.

Australia's sovereign manufacturing capacity

Australia requires a vision for High Value manufacturing that reflects both high levels of independence and an organisational framework to remediate the current collaborative shortfall. Key elements of the proposal are found here.

Innovation Australia July 2020

A public sector Webinar on The Cybersecurity Imperative will be held on Thursday 16th July, Details here

nandin unhooks 400 years of experience

A new on-line mentoring program has been launched at nandin. Entrepreneurs at nandin will be able to benefit from some of Southern Sydney's brightest business and industry leaders with over 400year of collective experience. For details see.